  - e. Upcoming Expenses
    - i. More reeds/supplies - General. Find a way for Boosters to pay for the orders directly instead of funnelling through the Band Director.
    - ii. 5 Class sets of Method Books. To be issued each year and returned to the band. Per administration, Boosters have money so Boosters should pay for it, or the parents can pay for it. The school will not provide funding for the additional textbooks. Percussion books are $18, others are $12-13; total about $1400. There is a different book for every grade level but usually use only the first level to teach the basics and then transition to sheet music. Each book should last about three years. Parents should talk to administration directly for more information. Administration has had it in their court for about a month but has not definitively said yes or no. Will wait for their answer although there is an immediate need for these books.
